Pre-Texts facilitator Stephanie Cedeño joined Prof. Doris Sommer to lead a training series for the Phillips Brooks House Association (PBHA) Keylatch Summer Program. The Keylatch Summer Program trains Harvard College student volunteers to work in PBHA's summer outreach programs. The students plan to use the Pre-Texts methodology to enhance their curriculum development for the summer camp experience. Throughout the training, they worked and played with the text All Summer in a Day by Ray Bradbury.

PBHA participants discuss their tangents, June 2013.
